2. _____

3. _____

Workshops

We're always looking for people to teach workshops! If you're interested in teaching a workshop, please contact Kerri at the Folk School: 907-457-1219 | kerri@folk.school

Silent Auction

To generate funds to support future Fairbanks Fiber Festivals, we hold a silent auction at the event and ask each vendor to donate a minimum of one (1) item to help support the cause. Please drop off your auction item at the check-in desk when you arrive. We really appreciate your support!

Additional Information

- The Fiber Festival will be open to the public from 10am-4pm on both Saturday, October 14th and Sunday, October 15th at the Pioneer Park Centennial Center.
- The building will open for vendor set up at 8:00 am on Saturday. Please plan to be completely set up when doors open to the public at 10am until 4pm. The building will reopen at 9am on Sunday for vendors. Vendors must be completely torn down and packed up by 5:30pm on Sunday.
- Please check-in at the check-in table upon arrival, located at the main entrance to the building on the south side. At that time, please drop off your silent auction donation with a description and retail price.
- No booth refunds will be given after September 15th, 2023.

Signature (REQUIRED)

- I grant permission to the Fairbanks Fiber Festival Committee to use photos, videos, and other visual representations of my table/products without compensation.
- I understand that I am responsible for my rented space and personal property, including the method of display, set-up, security of my property during the event, sale of merchandise, and take down of my display.
- I agree to indemnify, save, and hold the Fiber Festival Committee harmless from loss, liability, damages, or costs that I may incur, arising out of (or related to) the rental of my table(s) and/or space.
- I will donate a minimum of one (1) item to be entered into the Silent Auction.
